

Our Privacy Policy

In joining the Cleveland Hiking Club (“CHC”), members accept the policies of the club and share their respective contact information with the club. Contact information includes the information about you that you provide, such as name, address, telephone number and/or e-mail address. The club maintains records of membership and contact information as well as records of each member's hiking and volunteer activities.

These records may be shared with other club members from time to time. In no event will such detailed records be shared with non-members or outside organizations. CHC will not sell or distribute individual member records to outside organizations.

The Cleveland Hiking Club Website contains information available to the public as well as information restricted to “Members only.” The Board of Directors approves the type of information on the Website. Restricted access is accomplished by use of usernames and passwords tied to the rights to view, compose or edit certain type of information.

Members have access to other member’s contact information (directory information) for the purpose of facilitating communication between members. The club publishes a newsletter, Newsteps, and maintains the Cleveland Hiking Club Website, both of which may contain member data intended for the sole use of CHC members for club-related activities. Any other use of this material by a member is improper and may result in loss of said member’s membership pending review of the infraction by the Board of Directors.

We use security techniques designed to protect members’ information from unauthorized access. See Information Security below.

We also honor members' requests to remove their names from our broadcast alert email message distribution lists using reasonable efforts to delete the information from existing files. Just contact us.

Information Security

We have security measures in place to protect against the loss, misuse and alteration of information under our control.

Links

Cleveland Hiking Club is not responsible for content or privacy policies of other sites. Keep this in mind when accessing sites through links on the Website.

Updates

CHC will strive to improve the services it may offer to members and may update this privacy statement from time to time in connection with that effort. We reserve the right to expand our capabilities for information collection and use, and may change our policies along with this privacy statement at any time.